

HEADACHE IS OVER!

We still don't realize that the underpass on the St. Albert Trail is open! We still live by the idea that May of this year was to be the month for this big opening, as was told to us by the ones who were insiders. As the underpass was not opened in June, our doubt increased and as July didn't give us any hope we wondered if it would ever be opened and during August we were no longer interested, but all at once Minister of Highways - Mr. Gordon Taylor, Mayor Dantzer and Mayor Fowler came up with a big surprise and opened the gateway to St. Albert. During our many years headache at once!

No longer minutes late at our work in Edmonton. No longer at least 15 minutes later back home at the end of the day. No longer shouting to the ones who passed us irresponsibly to be the first in crossing the railroad tracks. No longer missing the first part of a movie, or just missing a trade or place. And for the teenagers no longer missing a date by being too late!

We go back to normal life and all of us will enjoy it tremendously. The modern 4 lane St. Albert Trail was originally paved at a width of 10 ft. in 1914. A traffic count taken in November 1965, 1964 recorded the following traffic 140 pedestrians - 110 horses and 52 motorists.

The present new underpass and trail has been under construction since May 1965 and has been completed at a cost of ----- $1,900,000.00 this cost was shared as follows:

Fed Gov't	$500,000.00
Prov. Gov't	$600,000.00
City of Edm.	$770,000.00
C.N.R.	$30,000.00

The new trail has been built to accommodate 6 lanes of traffic with a total pavement width of 72 ft. At present 11,000 cars a day are using the trail. Mayor Otch Fowler drove the convertible which inaugurated a ribbon and marked the official opening.

In his speech Mayor Fowler mentioned:-

"It is significant I believe that at least three Governments are represented here today at the official opening of this two mile stretch of highway and the underpass. As Mayor of St. Albert I deem it an honour and very great pleasure to be invited to the City of Edmonton to take part in this ceremony. I am thrilled that St. Albert, Alberta's oldest, finest and largest town is now joined to Alberta's finest City by this magnificent highway and underpass built at a cost of around $200.00 per linear foot.

In 1958 when St. Albert was just a town of approximately 1,000 people our access to the City was just a small annoyance due to the relatively small amount of traffic. However now that we have reached a population of 10,000 the increase in traffic to 11,000 vehicles a day did create a problem which only this new highway and underpass could overcome. We are most appreciative to all levels of government and the C.N.R.

I am pleased to note that as of today rapid transportation to and from St. Albert is now a true fact and a great advantage to our St. Albert citizens as well as the motoring public. On behalf of St. Albert and its citizens I offer our congratulations and gratitude to the Provincial Government, City of Edmonton and the C.N.R. When the proposed alignment is completed on the Government and St. Albert portion of the highway we will indeed have the Great White Way."

The picture shows the underpass and trail during the night, just at the moment of a passing passenger train thunders over the bridge. It also shows the perfect lighting of the whole area.

MAYOR'S COLUMN

AUGUST 24, 1966.

I can recommend most highly Waterton National Park as a holiday resort for a summer vacation. Five minutes from the Park Gate which can be said to be in the foothills of the Canadian Rockies which is to the mountains. For those that don't care for the constant hemmed-in feeling the mountains sometime give, it is ideal. The scenery is superb and the fishing, boating and trail riding are tremendous. All the lakes are glacier fed so naturally the water is swim in so the Federal Gov't has graciously supplied the resort with an OUTDOOR POOL.

If you are looking for a swinging night life - stay away. It doesn't exist. The teenagers can have a bonfire on Wednesday, Friday or Saturday, or a social dance (just) every night of the week and that's about it. But after you (our) eighteen holes of golf and take a trail ride up to one of the upper lakes you are about ready to go home with the sun.

On Monday evening (last) I had the pleasure of representing St. Albert at a farewell party at Ken Accord for twenty-five exchange students from Montreal who were visiting the Province under the Canadian Centennial Programme. It was really wonderful meeting these young ladies and gentlemen, and to see tears in so many eyes during the farewell march was most touching and made one think "Not a chance in the world of one of these children ever becoming separatist." Most of them had never been out of the City of Montreal. Keith Everett (our M.L.A.) and his wife Theima are to be congratulated for their efforts on behalf of this group, and the Home and School Association of Ken Accord and Gibbon who were the official hosts. Gordon Taylor (Minister of Highways) did a masterful job of emceeing the entertainment and dance. The Centennial feeling in both these communities has taken a large step forward.

I am deeply disappointed that to date we have not had any students from St. Albert travel east on these Centennial Trips. Some of you parents might like to question your Home and School Association or School Board. While none of my children would be in the suitable age bracket I am still going to determine why we in St. Albert have not been included in these exchanges. Is it lack of interest on our part, our Home and School or teachers, or possibly the Board?

Taking my cue from Edmonton's Mayor, I feel that now is as good a time as any to announce my intention regarding the forthcoming Civic Election, and like him, I will be running for another term for the office of Mayor - God willing. While frustrating at times I would be less than honest

Down-Town Area Development a Great Step Forward

As it seems that some citizens are not clear about the recent development proposals and decision of Council in regards to the Down Town Development Mayor Fowler has decided to call a meeting for all citizens, who own land in this area, for Wednesday September 7th. The meeting will be held in the Council Chamber with the purpose of giving an explanation and to discuss the urban renewal of the Down Town Area.

All land owners will have an opportunity to receive all information they want and it is to be hoped that all of them will attend.

Ballot Bonfire

Once a year the St. Albert Town Hall Staff have a special bonfire. It is the time when the Secretary-Treasurer has to burn the ballots of the previous election. Yesterday was the day that the October 1965 ballots were burned in the presence of Lloyd Whistling, Secretary-Treasurer, Guy Robert, Town staff employee and Sid Billings, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer. The 3 men took this job quite seriously as the Town and Village Act stipulated clearly that this event has to be done in the presence of 2 witnesses and the Secretary-Treasurer. As the old stuff is now to ashes, the new ballots will pretty soon be printed to have them in time for the 1966 October Town Elections.

In case you have forgotten, yes we have elections for 1) Mayor and 2) Councillors. Let your ballot be amongst the next Ballot - Bonfire Ceremony.

WONDERFUL!

Jack LeClair, Mayor of St. Albert, during the interview in the Gazette office.

SENIOR CITIZENS FOR OUR SENIOR CITIZENS

A WONDERFUL PROGRAMME

The Town's Recreation Department has developed an impressive Senior Citizens Recreation Programme, which is enjoyed by many of our Senior Citizens. As such a programme is the first ever provided for our old age group we can take credit for one of our Senior Citizens who has already taken part in many of these activities. The name is Jack LeClair (68) living at 167 St. Albert Trail, and 55 years a resident of our Town. Jack always took part in all kinds of St. Albert activities. He was Towns Justice of the Peace 7 years, Chairman of the School Board, 11 years Returning Officer for the town, President of the Playground Association and more than 40 years an Auctioneer by profession. Now being 74 he is very much pleased that the town has not forgotten him and all the other Senior Citizens by providing such a wonderful Recreation Programme for their group. We asked Jack different questions which he answered as follows:

QUESTION:

What do you think about the present Old Age Recreation programme sponsored by the Town's Recreation Department?

ANSWER:

It is a very interesting program which gives the old fellows a wonderful opportunity to meet different people to relax with in old age. I like the social meetings set up by the Recreation Department but also the different trips outside our Town.

QUESTION:

Was there ever a Recreation Programme for Senior Citizens in St. Albert before?

ANSWER:

Never before. It seems there was not enough interests for the old age group. This programme is absolutely new for me during my 55 years as a St. Albert resident.

QUESTION:

What has impressed you the most about these programmes?

ANSWER:

All events were just wonderful our trip to the Alberta Game Farm was most enjoyable. This Wednesday we will have a trip with the little Klondike River boat in Edmonton. I hope that many of my fellow senior citizens will participate.

QUESTION:

What are the costs involved?

ANSWER:

No costs whatsoever, if you want something extra beside the tea coffee and cookies (all free) you then have to pay yourself.

QUESTION:

Do you think that most of the senior residents will participate in these events?

ANSWER:

For sure as I have spoken with many of them who plan to participate as much as possible.

QUESTION:

Are you more satisfied with the present Recreation set-up in comparison with the programmes in the past?

ANSWER:

Yes, we as senior citizens are now recognized as a valid part of our society. Andre Gates and his staff are doing an excellent job.

QUESTION:

Do you think that the Recreation Department should spend as much money for the Senior Citizens programme as they do for our Junior Citizens?

ANSWER:

Certainly, after all the senior citizens is here for a short time, let's make it as enjoyable as possible for them to appreciate for all they have done for our town in the past. I know they are very happy to be involved in these recreational activities.

QUESTION:

Have you any other ideas or suggestions in regard to these programmes?

ANSWER:

I don't think so, it will develop better and better. I hope it will become a permanent programme. We are making friends all around which we would never have had if these activities were not set up by our Recreation Department.

We thanked Jack for this interview and his last remark was that he hoped that as many senior citizens as possible would enjoy this pleasant use of leisure time for which he would like to thank the Town of St. Albert.

DEAR DORIS

advice from Doris Clark

If Parents Are Divorced

DEAR DORIS — My parents are divorced and my father has remarried. The time has come when I'm considering marriage and I am faced with a problem.

I know that my father would like very much to give me away. I would like both of them to attend the wedding but my mother will get upset whenever she sees my father, and I do not want to cause any lasting hard feelings over this. Weddings are supposed to be happy occasions and I certainly want mine to be happy.

I haven't spoken to my mother about this as I don't want to upset her, but I'm sure she is thinking about this too.

Only Child

DEAR CHILD — So much depends on the individual situation. One divorced couple meets for lunch sometimes chiefly to consult about their children — a satisfaction to both of them.

In another case, so great has been the schism between the two who parted company, each will resort to all means possible to avoid contact with the other.

On a girl's wedding day it is surely wisdom for parents to bury the hatchet — to all outward appearances — for the sake of the child they both care about. Ask your mother if she can possibly manage this and I speak your father's most thoughtful comfort.

DEAR DORIS — My husband has just recently been appointed to a very responsible position. We are living just 20 miles from our previous home. Our friends back there have in the past given farewell parties and have made quite a thing of anyone going away. We have always contributed wholeheartedly to every occasion.

But when we left there wasn't one of them to say "congratulations" etc. My husband was deeply hurt. Now we have received another invitation to a farewell party for a very dear friend is member of the same group and my husband refuses to go. I am put in the petty position of refusing this invitation or telling a lie.

Why are we women always trying to pacify everyone, especially irate husbands? I'll be waiting for your advice.

Peace-maker

DEAR PEACEMAKER — Be sure as a wife you have a more fully developed social what that's why.

Has it not occurred to you that there was no party simply because your move was so nearly final? The fact that you are alone enough to be included in the upcoming celebration makes this out.

Look a "Dear friend" is being honored. Don't let your husband lower himself to the level of a child. You need your friends. In all probability it will eventually come out just what they didn't think of a party in your case.

DEAR DORIS — One hour looks the worst on the street. The yard is torn up and a garage started but left. My husband drives 20 miles on a week end to work on a house for his father for no pay. My husband is a carpenter and a good one. I have gone along with this for years but am tired. My husband thinks the world of us, but I seem to be the only one he can say "no" to.

Ready To Walk Out

DEAR READY — If you have walked out yes, don't. It isn't worth it.

Have someone to clean up the yard and present him with the bill. When he gets over the shock, get a line on a carpenter who would finish the garage. Then tell him about it having no right to an eye when you are so respectfully saying "no" but he isn't.

DEAR DORIS — My parents' fortieth wedding anniversary is coming up next month but my father passed away ten months ago.

What is the proper thing to do about remembering this event? We don't like to just forget all about it, yet a W.A. card doesn't seem appropriate.

Rob

DEAR ROB — No, indeed. You only remember a wedding anniversary with a gift or card when both parties are alive.

Perhaps a warm, thoughtful letter to her, recalling some of the happy times you all had together when your father was with you, would be the very best thing you could do.

JANITORS AND

TEACHERS, PRINCIPALS, SUPERINTENDENTS AND SCHOOL TRUSTEES

All momentarily the busiest people in the world. Preparing the 100 and 1 things before the new school year starts in an annual headache.

St. Albert this year has some additional trouble as the school officials are not sure if their school facilities will be sufficient. The Protestant School District will certainly have some serious facility troubles and they still hope that the Public School Dis., can help them with the Father Jan School. But the Public School officials are also not sure if they may need additional facilities. The increase of students and the need for school facilities over the past years is tremendous in the St. Albert district. We are a town with many many children in comparison with other towns in Alberta but many children means that we are feeling young as the kids keep us so. And feeling young means that we stay optimistic and believe in the future. . . . But there is also another busy gang of men and women who are in-involved in the preparation of the school buildings for the new school year. We had the pleasure to meet some of them and to see them at work at the different schools. They are the janitors who have the responsibility of preparing the classrooms for the teachers and hoping that they will be 100% satisfied.

The janitors are not only sweepers and cleaners, but most of them are the real handymen who can work as carpenters, brick-layers, heat expert etc., etc. What would we do with our schools in these modern times if we didn't have the "janitors".

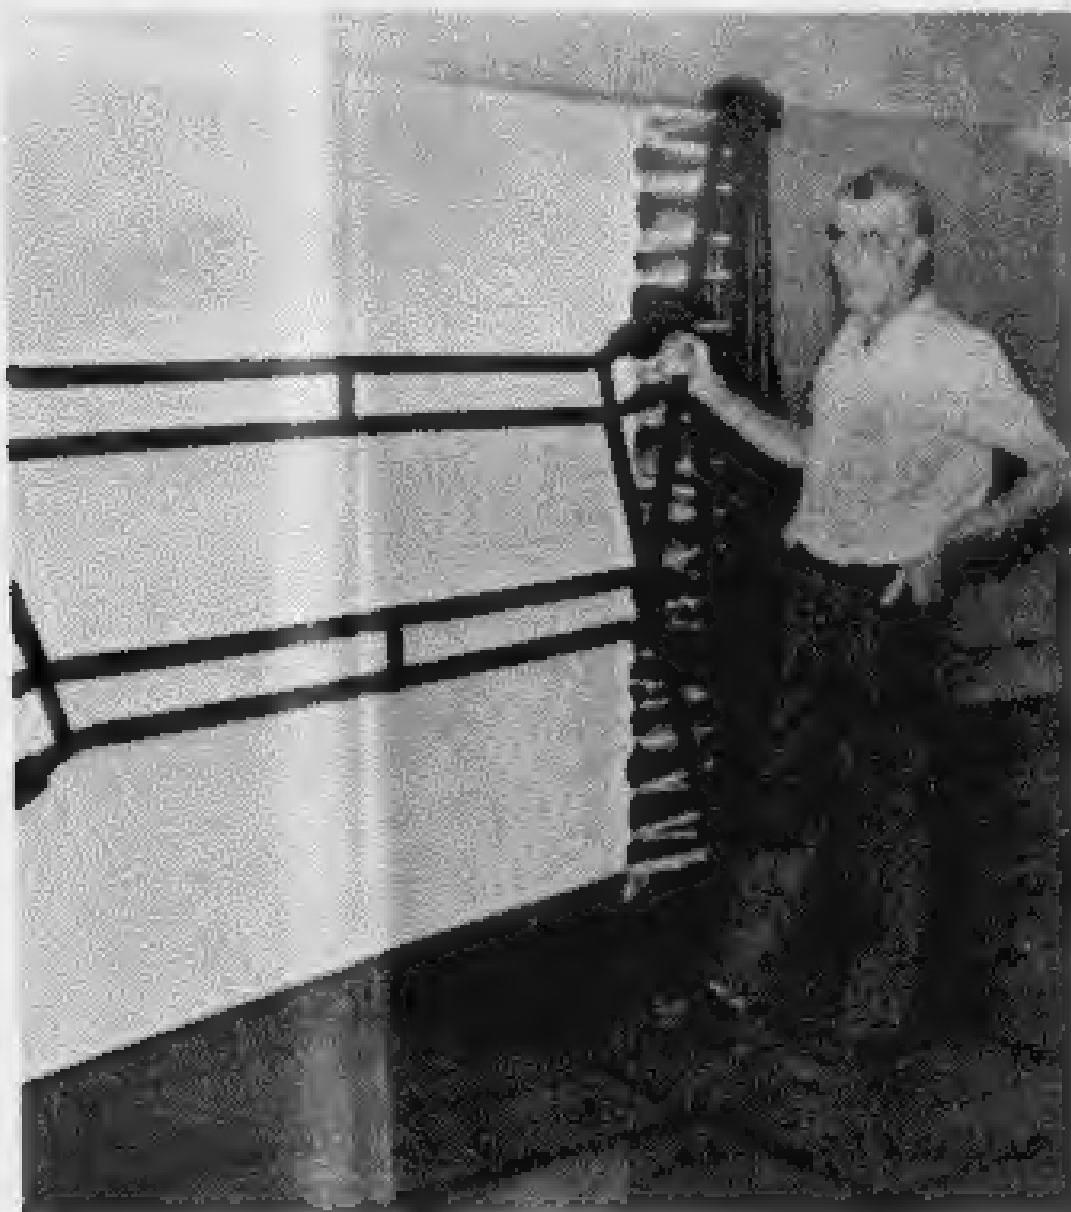

When we went to school we remember that the teacher was also a janitor, he swept the classroom after school time and he arranged a hundred other things which is now done by the janitor.

Education became more complicated for the teacher (administration) and his responsibilities increased in so many fields, that the good old times "teacher sweeper" vanished for ever. The professional group of janitors have taken over and their responsibilities are so wide spread that one might to be a handy man in order to be a good janitor!

Often we forget that the janitor gives the "teacher" to a school building, exterior and interior. A responsible janitor is always keen to have "his building" the cleanest of all. He is happy as he sees that the teachers and students can enter a spot and open room. It is his pride and his pleasure to keep it in this way the year around. Janitors, especially at schools, try to make it quite clear to everybody that they want them to understand that "their schools" are not to be used in an irresponsible way. And we as tax-payers should be glad knowing that the main source of our property is in good hands! We as parents are always worried about the teachers, principals and School Board. We want for our child the best, which is quite understandable, but never should we forget that a school with an irresponsible janitor is not a pleasant place for our children to be. Let's think this week about the school janitor who is now as busy as anybody else to satisfy all of us.

Janitor Cliff Munroe at the Vital Gravel School, moving the Trans-pole back into the Auditorium after finishing varnishing the floor which looks like a mirror now.

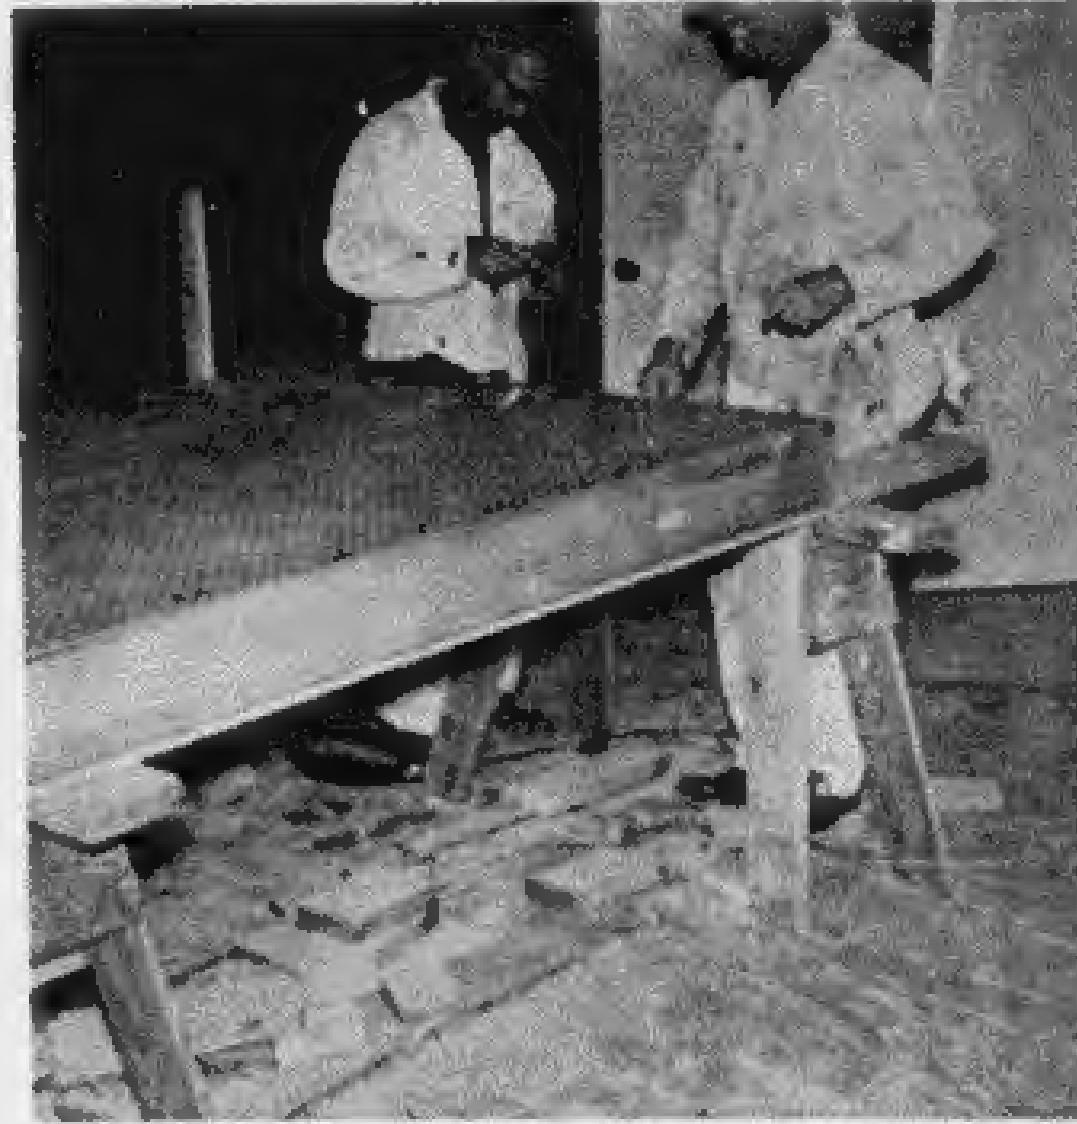

Janitors Elsie James and Roy Hammerman at Mackenzie School are busy cleaning the desks and tables.

Walter Hansen, Janitor at the Simpson Jun., High School and Charlie Hepburn, Janitor at the Paul Kane High School, giving each other a helping hand in order to put a classroom into normal condition.

Janitor foreman Jack Mitchell and Janitor John Chumko for the maintenance, both of the Prot., School District, are busy as carpenters in the Simpson Auditorium re-shaping the stage into a library so that the real Library can be used as a classroom.

Stolen - Bonneville

A pretty wedding took place on August 15th, in the St. Albert Roman Catholic Church at 11:00 a.m., when Dorothy Ann Bonneville, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Bonneville became the bride of Mr. Wayne Stolen, son of Mrs. Dorothy Stolen of Edmonton.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Larange, O.M.I.

The bride entered the church to the strains of the Wedding March on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. The bride was charming in her floor length white peo de sole gown on princess lines and a plain train. She wore a mundilla lace headpiece to her shoulders and her bouquet was white Gladioli.

Mrs. Jeannette King, sister of the bride was Matron of Honour and Miss Elfrida Duplessis was bridesmaid. They wore identical turquoise linen dresses with an overlay of white lace. Headpieces of Gladioli blooms, each carried a large spike of white Gladioli.

The Groom was attended by his brother Mr. Denis Stolen and Mr. Joe Holowicki.

Guests were Lionel Bonneville brother of the bride and Mr. Dick Staples of Westlock.

After the signing of the register, the bridal party left the church to music played by Mr. Cameron Ross of St. Albert.

At 1:00 p.m. the guests were entertained to a luncheon reception at the Club Macdonald. Mr. Dick Staples of Westlock was the Master of Ceremonies and Mr. Fred Schoenrock of Westlock proposed the toast to the bride, which was very ably replied to by the groom.

Several telegrams were received, one from Dorothy's Grandmother in Saskatchewan who was unable to attend.

The wedding cake was cut by the bride and groom and served to all present by the bridesmaids.

The happy couple left on a honeymoon trip to B.C. and points North.

They will make their home in Westlock.

Skistod - Kirkpatrick

On Saturday, August 20, 1966, Sherrill Ann Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. W. G. Kirkpatrick of St. Albert was united in marriage with Richard Harold Skistod, son of Mr. & Mrs. T. Skistod, also of St. Albert. The double-ring ceremony was held in Christ Anglican Church in Edmonton.

The bride wore a full length gown of white peo de sole with a full length train. A head-dress of white roses held her shoulder length veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Marie Douglas was maid of honour, Colleen Skistod and Elizabeth Briggs were bridesmaids and the two little flower girls were Nancy Gillay and Sherry Briggs. They were all dressed alike in full length gold peo de sole gowns and carried colonial bouquets of white and gold shasta daisies.

The mother of the bride was dressed in a pale blue brocade two-piece outfit with white accessories. She wore white roses as her corsage.

The mother of the groom was dressed in a gold brocade two-piece outfit with matching accessories. She wore a gardenia as her corsage.

Solent at the wedding was Mr. Roy Gillay and the piper was Mr. Ernie Hosenet.

After a reception at the Royal Glenside Club, the happy couple left for a honeymoon at Jasper. On their return they will reside in St. Albert.

The Young Spinsters

That we should be spinners and I. Glad that we are, is not when we did 20 or 30 years ago. We'd never measure up to what the girls demand today.

I discovered this too late, during a panel discussion in one of my Grade 12 classes. Topic was "Early Marriage". Participants were four bright attractive girls of 17 or 18.

Well, they really opened my eyes. In fact, I was shocked and dismayed by the hard-headed, materialistic attitude of these young ladies. Generally, they had the right idea - that teen age marriages are a mistake and for all the wrong reasons.

I used to think that marriage was based on mutual respect, physical attraction, shared interests, love. That shows you how old-fashioned I am.

It seems that these days - successful marriage is a combination of economic, emotional and psychological stability.

First of all, you have to have money. This rule was particularly true. It means the couple must have enough money for at least three payments on the house, furniture, appliances. It follows that the girl must finish school and take a job and save. The boy must get through law school or medicine (or plumbing for these kids). Again, it follows that he's about 30, she's at least 25, before they can think of marriage.

They can't manage a budget. Apparently the answer to this is for the girl to complete her education and work for a few years. This prepares her for marriage.

Then, if she has studied typing or philosophy or handwriting or something, and made a living for a year or two, she's all set for picking childbearing and budget-balancing. I don't follow the logic, but I guess she's a little better about teen age thinking.

Girls I can show you women I 30, career girls, who can't cook a TV dinner, don't know one end of a knife from the other, unless it's crying, and couldn't handle the budget of a Sunday School class without pulling it on the rack.

Another serious suggestion was that marriage should be delayed until both parties have had a chance to travel and see the world. The implication was that after you're married and had kids, you never do more than take a Sunday drive.

Well, I have a nephew of 17 who was born in Yellowknife, Northwest Territories and has grown up in South America, the West Indies, Holland and New Zealand. I have a niece, 18 who has lived in England, France and Germany. These kids didn't show their parents love.

Recreation News For Everybody

This Week is the Last Week of Playground Operation

Open house and a variety night is planned on all three playgrounds on Wednesday night from 8:00 - 8:00 P.M. Parents are invited to attend. An art display, variety show, and sing-along are planned for their viewing and enjoyment. This will be the official farewell night on each playground.

Playground Track and Field Meet

A combined playground track and field meet will be held at Mission Park starting at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, August 29th, 1968. Each playground will compete in the events, and a silver plate will be awarded to the winner. The best playground award will also be given out in the afternoon.

Teens

The teen activities last week were all well attended. Over 100 teens attended the CONTINUOUS DANCE in the Clubhouse on Friday night. The 15th NIGHTS at Paul Kane have been well attended with enthusiastic participants.

TEEN SWIM PARTIES

The swim parties are very popular event with the teens. Please note that there are only two swim parties left in August. A bus leaves the Clubhouse at 8:15 p.m. A fee of 50¢ is charged to cover the bus trip and the money extending pool.

Senior Citizens

A picnic and tour to the RIVER BLAT is planned for the Senior Citizens on Wednesday, August 28th, 1968.

Square Dance

The SQUARE DANCE held in the Clubhouse on Saturday, August 24th, was very successful. A group of senior citizens, under the capable direction of Mr. St. Registre is planning to put on a demonstration on the registration night of the fall classes to be held Sept. 30th, 1968.

Anyone who would like to donate records for old time dancing please call the Recreation Office at 599-4808, extension 34.

Children's Needlecraft Display

The display of children's needlecraft which at the moment is shown in the library can be picked up between 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, or Friday, or on Saturday from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Dress Rehearsal

"MR. DRYSDALE! MISS SMOOTS IS PULLING HER HAIR OUT AGAIN!"

NO WALLFLOWER You may be decorated with daisies, but you won't be a wallflower at any party if you wear this cheap, fun, dinner dress. Many designers are turning to nature generally for inspiration this year, adapting designs from flowers, birds, plumage and butterfly wings.

If you're in your forties or fifties, this message is addressed to you. It isn't too soon to begin planning and preparing for retirement - for a happy, contented old age. You'll find many helpful suggestions in a free pamphlet distributed by your Mental Health Association, entitled 'Leisure in Later Years.' Write for it today.

Do you ever wonder why you feel up on cloud nine one day, and down in the dumps the next? We all have these ups and downs, but it helps to know something about them. Write for the free pamphlet 'How to Deal with Mental Problems,' to the Canadian Mental Health Association, 415 Reville Building, Edmonton.

TEEN DANCES NOT BANNED!

According to Henry Tarrault and Albert Soutter, officers of the St. Albert and District Community League, the Teen dances are not banned. An article appearing in the Edmonton Journal was due to a misunderstanding between the Community League and the manager of the second Teen dance who supplied two bands for that occasion instead of one. Negotiations between the Teen dance manager and the St. Albert & District Community League resulted in solving the different problems. Teen dances will resume at a later date.

SYMPOSIUM
The sympathy of the parish is extended to the Foy family on the recent death of their young daughter, also to the family on the sudden death of Mrs.
Dorothy Roseville. Mr. J.
Mink officiated.

A large crowd of parishioners and friends gathered Sunday at 10:00 a.m. for Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father A.
Forsyth, O.M.I., at the St. Albert Parish. Mr. M.
Lapointe, O.M.I., and Mr. J. Foy,

The August of the Altar has been a week of family at St. Albert, the thousand lights of the Altar. The celebrathat left last evening would result in a wonderful week of love and good fellowship for the day.

They will spend their time with groups from different parishes in the celebration.

EDMONTON LIBRARY

LIBRARY DETAILS
NEW PHOTOCOPIER
A new, fast, and convenient method for public convenience was installed this week in the main building of the Edmonton
Public Library, according to Mr.
Richard, Martin, Librarian.

In this improved machine,
readers can make their own photocopies of magazine articles, parts of books, or private papers and so on, with better results.

Readers seeking material from non-circulating reference books such as encyclopedias and rare volumes from the Canadian collection will also benefit from this service.

The photocopier will make the resources of the Edmonton Public Library available to more persons and protect valuable books from wear.
